Residences: self-catering, 18+, Saturday to Saturday. A refundable security deposit applies and the taxi transfer from Galway Coach Station is compulsory.

Special requests (diet, allergies, location) must be made at the time of booking, incur a supplement and cannot be guaranteed.

• Arrival & Transfers

Flight details should be sent at the time of booking, or at least 28 days before your course begins, so transfers can be arranged.

Meet & Greet is obligatory for all under-18s, as required by Irish law. It includes the bus ticket to Galway and the taxi to your accommodation.

Getting here. Galway is served by Dublin, Shannon, Knock and Cork airports. We can book your coach or private taxi transfer.

• Your Timetable

Most courses start any Monday. Exam Preparation, English for 30+, 50+, Teacher Training, SAY Business, Academic English and Group Programmes have fixed start dates.

Classes begin at 09.00 (AM) and 13.30 (PM). Your timetable is allocated on your first day and may change at the discretion of management.

Public holidays. Classes missed on public holidays are not made up, except for one-to-one components.

• First Day

On your first day, arrive at the school at 8am. You will have orientation, an oral interview and then be placed in your class.

• Your Course

Lessons are 45 minutes. Maximum class size is 15.

Levels A1–C1/C2. Some courses require a minimum level.

Placement test is obligatory and must be taken at least two weeks before your start date.

Attendance is monitored — a minimum of 85% is required. An English-only policy applies throughout the school.

Minimum age 17 in low season. Under-18s require a signed parental guarantee and the Meet & Greet service.

• Protection of Enrolled Learners

GCI is a member of the ELE Ireland Student Protection Scheme, which has ILEP approval. In the unlikely event that you cannot complete your programme with us, you may complete your course at another ACELS-recognised school at no additional cost. The scheme applies to courses of more than 12 weeks.

• Insurance & Visas

Insurance is obligatory for non-EEA students and must be issued by a body regulated by the Irish authorities.

Visa applications: please allow a minimum of six weeks. If a visa is refused, fees are refunded except the deposit (€150 English language / €300 higher education) — unless false or inaccurate information was submitted.

Long-stay non-EEA students are required to sit an international examination as part of their visa conditions.

• Exams, Books & Materials

Books and materials are charged separately. A further charge applies for a new book when you change level.

Exam fees and exam books are charged separately, and late registration fees apply.

Exam dates are often on a Saturday. They are correct at the time of printing but may change — please confirm before booking return flights.

• Health & Conduct

Health. Students should be in a fit state of health for the course and accommodation booked. Any important health or psychological condition must be disclosed before enrolling so that we can approve the booking and make reasonable arrangements.

Changes of course. Students may not move from group to private tuition, take a less intensive course, or shorten a course.
